Dear Sir—
In My letter of the 14th inst I failed to state my questions so as to be intelligible to you. I beg your indulgence further in reply to the following queries. I am aware that the Mints no longer purchase Silver bullion—What I wish to know is this—Should I as an individual bring Silver bullion to your Mint—Can I have it Minted into dollar pieces of the Standard dollar now in use. if so, what would the Government charge me per dollar for its coinage? For how much indebtedness is the Silver dollar a legal tender? Do the Silver men mean, in the phrase "free" and "unlimited", that the Silver bullion will be minted "free" to the holders of Silver bullion - should they coin the day in Nov.?

I am sorry to trespass upon your valuable time - but - I wish light upon the queries indicated

Please reply

Yours truly

Dear Sir –

In my letter of the 14th instant I failed to state my question so as to be intelligible to you. I beg your indulgence further in reply to the following queries. I am aware that the Mints no longer purchase silver bullion. What I wish to know is this – Should I as an individual bring silver bullion to your Mint. Can I have it minted into dollar pieces of the Standard dollar now in use. If so, what would the government charge me for dollar for its coinage? For how much indebtedness is the silver dollar a legal tender? Do the silver men mean, in the phrase "free" and "Unlimited", that the silver bullion will be minted "Free of cost" to the holders of silver bullion. Should they so in the day in Nov.?

I am sorry to trespass upon your valuable time, but I wish light upon the queries indicated.

Please reply,
Yours truly,
